

ABOUT

Lauren Mulligan creates accessible, smart design for a range of budgets—from shoestring to sky's the limit.

After beginning her career on the TV show Television Title, Lauren went on to become a set decorator for several independent films. She also worked on studio projects—including Feature Film Title, where she had the honor of assisting Oscar-nominated set decorator Jane Connor. In addition to her film background, Lauren has contributed to major design projects, notably the interior design of both top movie and corporate executives' New York City homes.

In each of her projects, she has designed an inviting space while keeping healthful, eco-conscious living in mind. Lauren has an AAS in Interior Design from the New York School of Interior Design, New York, and BA in Communications from Villanova University, Pennsylvania. She lives near NYC with her adorable daughter, Katie.
